

Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

Whereas:

The members of the Horrison, Thompson and Stewart Family, who are of good character and reputation, are uniting in the host city of Lima, Ohio, for the purpose of promoting and maintaining fellowship and celebrating culture and heritage during a bi-annual family reunion; and

WHEREAS: The Horrison, Thompson and Stewart Family originated primarily in the southern United States, and some remain there, while others have broadened the perspective of their ancestry by migrating into various parts of the world. However, all have strived towards success while demonstrating wisdom and unity; and

WHEREAS: The Horrison, Thompson and Stewart Family abide by the concept of Booker T. Washington who stated "In all things that are purely social, we can be as separate as the fingers, yet one as the hand, in all things that are essential to our mutual success."; and

WHEREAS: The Horrison, Thompson and Stewart Family acknowledges Jesus as their Saviour, and Lord of their lives. They show reverence to God and allow him to order the steps of their journey towards his divine destiny and purpose for their lives; and

WHEREAS: The Horrison, Thompson and Stewart Family members agree to love, aid and respect one another. Peace, joy and unity will resonate from within, as they pledge to visit one another and keep in touch.

NOW THEREFORE: I, David J. Berger, Mayor of the City of Lima, Ohio do hereby proclaim Saturday, July 5, 2014 as in the City of Lima, Ohio and I urge all family members to promote love and to establish or renew your commitments toward God and toward one another, while oprating under the law and respect for the United States of America.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Seal of the City of Lima, Ohio, this 4th day of June 2014.

Signature of David J. Berger
